DECISIONS

1. The document titled "Delivery of courses and administration of exams in extraordinary circumstances," prepared by the Dean's Office, has been examined and was found appropriate by the board members, and its content was supported.
2. Due to the turnstiles at the entrance of the lecture halls constantly breaking down, disruptions are occurring at entry and exit. It is requested that the turnstiles be checked and brought into stable working condition.
3. The benches in the gazebos between the classrooms and the parking lot have been removed, but new ones have not been provided in their place. It was requested that larger and more practical benches be provided as soon as possible for students' social-space needs.
